

The Fourquarean-Price Company.

The Fourquarean-Price Company. A Profit-Sacrificing Clearing Sale!

The Cold Wave is Coming.

It will probably reach here by Monday morning. You will want many things at once you have not needed before. The continued warm weather has caused a big drop in prices. The loss to us is your gain.

To-morrow you will find here greater values than the oldest shopper in Richmond can remember of receiving—values that cannot last long. If you are interested you will be benefited.

Only three more days—Clearing-Out Sale of Housefurnishing Goods in order to make room and to devote the space they occupy to our Grand, New Importations of Toys, Dolls, and Fancy Goods, to be the finest and grandest display of Holiday Goods Richmond has ever seen. Housefurnishing Goods must, therefore, go! We must have three days of record-breaking sales. It's an urgent necessity that stocks must be cleared. We must have immense sales—no matter what the sacrifice—and quote prices to meet the emergency. Extra deep cuts on all bulky goods, as, for instance, Large-Sized Japanned Coal-Hods, extra heavy bottom, best made, each 5c.

Black Silks.

Again to-morrow some unparalleled bargains in Silks.

Extra Fine, All-Black Fulle Francaise, the 10 goods, for 65c.

Black Extra Quality, Heavy Black Fine Laces, a quality that cannot be made to sell under $1.75 a yard.

To-morrow, $1.25.

Black Double Warp Black Zurich Silk, the 10 goods, for 60c.

Black Mire Velour, the newest silk fabric, and in great demand, $1 a yard.

Colored Silks.

Checked and Plain Silks in light colors, regular price, 60c a yard.

To-morrow, 25c.

To-morrow, 50c.

Black Tulle Silks, that always sell at $1 a yard, for 75c.

White and Tan Tulle, the most beautiful fabric made, $1.50 value, for 95c.

Black Dress Goods.

It is such values as these that make buying a pleasure.

Black 1/2 Striped Crepe, a beautiful Black, and an excellent B value.

To-morrow, 75c.

Black All-Wool Serge, compare it with any 75c goods in the city.

To-morrow, 50c.

Black Mohair, the balance of the lot of 50c goods, offered last Monday, 35c a yard.

Wraps and Suits.

Another great cut to reduce the surplus. Unseasonable weather results to your benefit.

All-Wool Diamond and Rough Check Jackets, they are all light weight and light in color. This is the weather, compare prices, $5 to $15.

Choice, $4.

All-Wool Light-Weight Jackets, in light colors, $4 and 26 former price, $4.

Choice, $1.50.

Five Diagonal Light-Weight Jackets, in light colors, $5 and 26 former price, $4 and 25.

Choice, $10.

Three-Quarter Coats, in Black, Gray, and Navy, sizes 22 to 38 former price, $15 to $20 each.

Choice To-morrow, $1.

Black All-Wool Cheviot, Tailor-Made Jacket in box front, with coat back and large turn-down collar. Skirt in full lined. Sizes, 24, 26, and 28 former price, $12.

To-morrow, $7.

Black Brilliantine Suits, jackets with deep collar and standing collar, and skirts very full and stiffened. Sizes, 24 and 26 former price, $18 a suit.

To-morrow, $8.

Just five Fancy Novelty Suits, all this season's goods and all good styles. Less than half price buys them this week.

Millinery.

Continued warm weather and an accumulated stock in consequence, forces the prices to the lowest limit ever known in the history of the trade. The time has come now to sell regardless of value, and to-morrow commences the great sacrifice of desirable goods at prices so low the department ought to be crowded.
